GADGET: SUPERPHONE

The Doctor can tweak mobile phones to create a "superphone" to communicate through time and space. The call comes through at a time relative to the length of time since you last had contact with the person called. So, if you've been away for three weeks, it will be three weeks after you left to the person you're calling.

Traits: Restriction [only communicates with home time period], Transmit

STORY POINTS

1

GADGET: SONIC LIPSTICK

Sarah Jane Smith has a smaller version of the Doctor's universal gadget. The Sonic Lipstick is more compact, and cleverly disguised but is a little more limited in its abilities.

Traits: Open/Close, Restriction [Cannot open Deadlock Seals], Scan, Transmit

2

GADGET: WRIST SCANNER

Sarah Jane Smith has a disguised biological scanner hidden within her watch. Able to detect alien life forms, the scanner can also pick up alien entities or infections in humans.

Traits: Scan
